

Chris Dunlop

Sales Representative, Royal LePage Estate Realty

With nearly 20 years of marketing and sales experience, combined with extensive education and training experience rounded off with my expertise as a Realtor, I will help you understand and prepare for the home selling process. You will learn how to prepare your home for sale, get information on current market conditions and activity, and ultimately will be exposed to the ins and outs of how to market your home while maximize the price and minimizing the time on market.

I will also ensure you are aware of the consumer protection measures that are in place and what you can expect from your Realtor and other Realtors. I believe strongly in the importance of consumer education and advocacy and am confident that you will have a much better home selling experience by starting with our seminar. When I became a Realtor I chose to specialize in first time home sellers and buyers. I know and understand what first time sellers and buyers are thinking and feeling and I can work with you to make informed choices that you feel comfortable with.

Your expert advice on how to present my home to prospective buyers led to a very speedy sale for a great price. I also appreciate the way you took your time to explain every aspect of the sale. You definitely went the extra mile."

"We just want to thank you for the wonderful job you did for us over the last couple of months - your hard work and dedication in both helping us to purchase our dream home (below asking) and selling our current place (at $45,000 over asking - still can't wipe the smiles off our faces) was fantastic."
